Birth Star Krittika
1st Quarter.

The stars dispense the fruits of karma, the highest of which is the fruit of our worship and meditation - our spiritual labour for life -

Once you understand the energies of the stars, your star in this case, Krittika, and learn how to utilize these energies to bring your life into harmony with the great forces of the universe, you become a successful being.

Krittika
26°40' Aries to 10°00' Taurus

This is the 3rd star (out of 27) - It resides in the constellations of the Ram and the Bull -

The first quarter 3°20" is in Aries, with the remaining 10°00' in Taurus - The Sun is the ruling planet of this star - Therefore in the first quarter, a Sun/Mars dynamism is experienced due to the waning Aries influence - Leadership, power and authority may result - (Bill Clinton)

The astronomical location of this Star is in the Constellation of the Pleiades - The Six brightest stars of the Pleiades form this star, Krittika - They are seen in Hindu mythology as the wives of the Great Seers - The stars of this lunar mansion reside in the upper torso of the Bull The Moon is exalted at 3° degrees of Taurus in this Constellation.

Krittika represents the determined and tenacious will to achieve greatness - It is the fighter for a social cause, the Spiritual warrior -

The ruling deity is Agni, the God of fire and transformation - Krittika's symbols are a flame, a razor, an axe or other edged weapons - This star represents the power to burn or to cut away negativity to get to the deepest truths - Krittika literally means "the Cutters" - and is called the star of fire -

Since Agni is the God of the sacred fire, purification is the dominant activity of this lunar mansion - This may be a good star to perform a fire ceremony to propitiate Agni - It can bring out the divine qualities in human nature through the fires of purification - Agni is the fire that cooks our food, so there is a nourishing effect experienced here -

Krittika also reflects the aspiration for radical changes in personal and social life.

The remaining 10°00 of Krittika fall in the constellation of Taurus, ruled by the planet Venus. Gifts in the fine arts may be generated through the Sun / Venus influence and this may be experienced here.

The shadow side of Krittika is a stubborn, aggressive nature. Destructive tendencies and issues with anger may be observed. A passive-aggressive personality may be present. Fiery emotions and a combative nature can result. The person may have difficulties concerning his or her diet and eating habits.

Moon in Krittika -
Peaceful nature, good adviser
Strong in purpose, determined
Intelligent but unstable mind
Gifts in fine arts
